You understand my concerns, yes?

Of course. Police could be voluntary stage 2

We want to take walk-ins. Many typical sobering centers do not. My team will reiterate this if it comes up, but wanted you to know as well.

Thank you! (This is Deb) - I would vote for you as mayor

Good!

Where did you land?

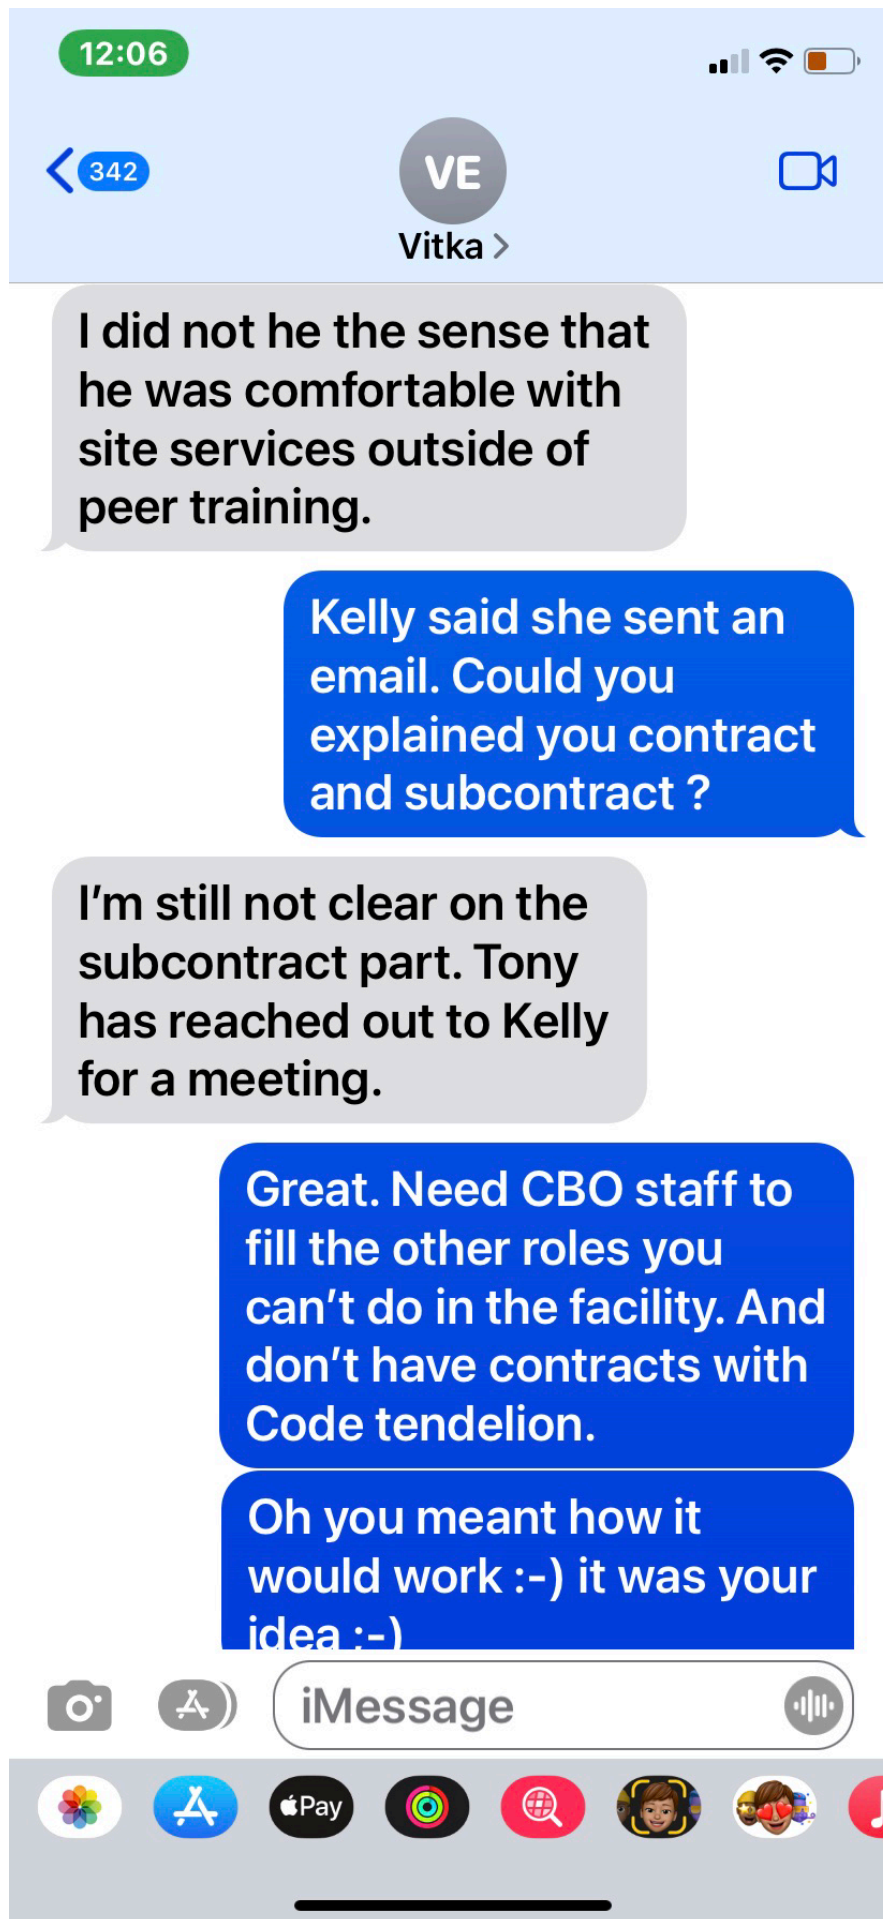

I think he is comfortable

complementary with what we are providing.

How about supporting

Yes, I'll be there from 9.00am -5.30pm.
However, I am training the new team, (cohort 1) which should include, 5 supervisors and 2 Health Worker. We will be in a classroom on 2nd Floor. I plan on trying to spend about 4 hours with new staff on 1st floor b

Great. I will let Jeff an Tiffany know

My onboard training plan was intended to be 2 weeks. So we are condensing it and incrementally increasing work hours.

(Not for sharing) I heard she did, and supposedly said, she was not tripping on the hysterical Daily Mail article. DEM want a bit more discretion - hopefully the new tent set up and the moved bathrooms will help all that.

Given how this unfolded with Mayor- we all are doing amazing, compassionate and humane work. I won't let the desire for perfection get in the way of really good work! As long as we continue to provide this service to PUD, I am truly grateful to be a part of it. TTYL. ❤️

Going great. I love the spot. I reversed an OD today. I'm up to 4 reversals.

Thanks for saying that-let my boss know :-)

Are we keeping score?
Take care of yourself 🌈

The woman I reversed came up to me at the end and thanked me for saving her and asked if she could hug me. I said off course, and we had a beautiful hug with her head on my heart.

I am tracking my reversals, (not an ego thing- more quality control) this one was very smooth, I was totally calm (usually I get a bit of an adrenaline rush) and I knew she was breathing after 2 hits of Narcan - while still not fully conscious.

I know- I was teasing. I am very conscious of how much emotional and spiritual energy it takes to do this work, and it's critical that we take care for ourselves as well

You should have an extra day off for every reversal

How are you doing Deb?

hope all is well. ❤️
